Social Reform Project

The 1800's was a time of social reformation—a time when individuals wanted to improve our society and make life of all Americans. They fought against the evils of alcohol and slavery and wanted to improve education and take it possible for women to have the right to vote. Here are some of the people mentioned in Chapter 14 that tried to improve our society:

Who were these People, what did they do?

What do I need to do?

Your assignment is to either create a children's storybook OR PowerPoint slides that reflect a social reform hero from the list above OR you can tell a story of social reform that you think needs to happen today. Think of current policy or laws and how you want to reform or change a specific policy or law, and write your own story of social reform.

*Social Reform: change in certain aspects of society (i.e. changing society so that slavery is illegal)
